How my insurer helps me manage my health and safety risk

Good health and safety standards help you to run your business successfully. Meeting the requirements of relevant regulation is a central factor in achieving this. Insurers recognise the wider benefits to society of encouraging businesses in following sensible, proportionate measures aimed at helping them to carry out their activities.

We are providing this information to help you take sensible steps to manage health and safety effectively.

Insurers will continue to settle legitimate claims. Insurers will also co-operate with businesses such as yours if you need to deal with the consequences of vexatious claims made against you.

Your insurer will always be willing to offer you guidance on what constitutes good practice in managing health and safety. This guidance should be aimed at improving the resilience of your business in dealing with civil law claims made against you, and will be proportionate to the level of risk involved.

Employers' liability vs public liability – what's the difference?

Insurers provide cover for businesses' legal liabilities by issuing:

- employers' liability policies – this covers employers for injury or disease to people they employ; and
- public liability policies – this covers businesses for injury, disease or damage to people they do not employ, for example visitors.

The law - the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974

- This is the main law on health and safety and says that every employer is to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the health and safety of employees and also persons not in their employment who may be affected by work activities.
- Your insurer expects you to take reasonable steps to comply with this requirement and other related regulations, using the guidance and tools provided by the Health and Safety Executive (or other competent organisations) to help with this aim. You can find more information at www.hse.gov.uk/index.htm.
- Your insurer will not refuse to pay a claim purely because of a breach of health and safety regulations.
- Your insurer will not withdraw cover midterm purely because of a breach of health and safety regulations.

Who is an employee?

There are various forms of employment. Often a working individual may not be engaged under a contract of employment. For this reason, insurers include, under an employers' liability policy, a definition of who is to be treated as an 'employee'. A typical definition would be:

- any person employed under a contract of service or apprenticeship;
- people on work experience schemes, for example, students;
- any person hired or borrowed from another employer including drivers or operators of hired in plant;
- labour only subcontractors; and
- home workers.

All these people are covered while working for and under your control in your business.

Some common concerns

Documentation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Insurers do not generally need you to show any formal evidence that you are keeping to health and safety regulations nor do they ask to see health and safety documents as a condition of granting insurance cover. • However, although it is not a legal or insurance requirement to do so, good record keeping (for example, training records, written risk assessments etc.) may be useful if you need to defend a civil law claim.
Written risk assessments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If you employ fewer than five employees, there is no need for you to complete written risk assessments. However, although completing and recording risk assessments is not a legal or insurance requirement, it may help in defending any civil law claims made against you.
The role of health and safety consultants	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You do not need to hire a health and safety consultant. The law says that you must have access to competent health and safety advice – often, this is available from your own staff. • If, however, the complexity or nature of your business indicates that you do need external support, your insurer will normally recommend that you use a health and safety consultant who is listed on the Occupational Safety and Health Consultants Register. You can get more information at www.oshcr.org.
Testing portable electrical appliances	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There is no specific legal requirement for every portable electrical appliance to be tested each year and your insurer will not insist upon this when offering you insurance. • However, as you must maintain this equipment suitably to prevent danger, insurers recommend you follow the guidance published by the HSE, available at www.hse.gov.uk/electricity/index.htm. • For specific guidance, read 'Maintaining portable electric equipment in low risk environments', available at www.hse.gov.uk/pubns/indg236.pdf.

Adequate Explanation Q&A Sheet

Below are some questions and answers aimed at explaining important features of the Credit Agreement offered by Ansvar Insurance.

Consumer Credit Act 1974

You can arrange to pay for your insurance premium by instalments by completing a Direct Debit Instruction. We will issue you with the following documents to comply with the Consumer Credit Act 1974:

1. Pre-Contract Credit Information - setting out the costs and payments on your Credit Agreement.
2. Credit Agreement - which you will need to sign.

Q) How do I apply to pay my premium by instalments?

A) You will need to complete and return the enclosed Direct Debit Instruction. We will then send your account details to your Bank or Building Society to be validated and arrange for payments to be made at agreed intervals. If we need to alter your payments we will write to tell you this before we debit your account. If you have more than one policy, your account will be charged separately for each policy. Whilst you have the option to pay by monthly instalments, your insurance policy remains an annual contract.

Q) What is the purpose of this Credit Agreement?

A) This Credit Agreement provides an easy way to pay for your insurance. It is an agreement that allows you to spread the cost of your insurance premium over a period of time, allowing you to manage your cash flow more easily over the duration of your insurance policy. Our Credit Agreement is designed specifically for repayment of insurance premiums and is not suitable for any other use.

Q) Who is eligible?

A) You must be 18 or older and have a Bank or Building Society current account. Banks or Building Societies may not accept instructions to pay Direct Debits from certain types of account, please check with them if you are not sure. We can only accept Direct Debit Instructions from the policyholder.

Q) How important is it for me to read the Pre-Contract Credit Information?

A) It is very important that you read the Pre-Contract Credit Information (known as the Standard European Consumer Credit Information or SECCI) included within your Instalment Pack and take time to consider it carefully. The Instalment Pack contains details of the cost of your Credit Agreement, the monthly payment that you will need to make and the dates on which these will be taken, as well as the terms and conditions of the Credit Agreement itself which is our legal contract with you. This information will enable you to make an informed decision about whether or not this is the right method of payment for you.

Q) Do I have the right to cancel or terminate this agreement?

A) You have the right to cancel this Credit Agreement within 14 days from receiving your copy of it by notifying us by phone, or in writing at the address shown overleaf. You may terminate this Credit Agreement free of charge at any time by giving us 14 days' notice in writing or by phone.

If you cancel or terminate the Credit Agreement you will need to pay any outstanding premium due for your insurance cover immediately.

Q) How does paying by Direct Debit work and how much will it cost?

A) Paying by Direct Debit lets you spread the cost of your insurance over 10 instalments rather than paying for it in one lump sum in advance. The premium plus Insurance Premium Tax (IPT) at the current rate plus any instalment charge that may apply (as set out in the Pre-Contract Credit Information and the Credit Agreement) will be divided equally over the instalments. Please make sure you have enough funds in your bank account each month to cover the Direct Debits. If you do not have sufficient funds you may be liable for charges from your Bank or Building Society for which we cannot be held responsible. Direct Debit is only available when you first take out your insurance or when you renew your policy. You cannot change to Direct Debit if you have already started to pay in a different way. We can only consider Direct Debit applications up to two months after the policy inception or renewal date.

Your Pre-Contract Credit Information will set out any specific charges relating to your policy.

Q) What happens at renewal?

A) When your policy is due for renewal your Direct Debit will automatically continue. We will advise you of any changes of amount and continue to apply to your Bank or Building Society for the amount due. If you want to stop your cover and cancel your Direct Debit, please contact us and your Bank or Building Society to let us know before the renewal date.

Q) What happens if I make a claim on the policy?

A) In the event of a claim you remain liable for any outstanding insurance premium. Ansvar reserves the right to deduct any outstanding premium under this agreement from any claims payments.

Q) What happens if I fail to make a payment?

A) If you fail to make a payment we will request it again from your account within the next 10 days. If this request also fails we will contact you and ask you to resolve this. If you cannot make the payment your policy will be cancelled and a charge made for any cover provided up to the date of cancellation. This would leave you without the protection of the insurance cover.

Q) How do I get further information?

A) For further information please contact us on 0345 60 20 999 or by writing to us at Ansvar Insurance, Ansvar House, St Leonards Road, Eastbourne, East Sussex, BN21 3UR.

Please fill in the whole form using ball point pen and send it to:
